Dear Distinguished Guests,

Welcome to Lafayette, Louisiana, and thank you for your participation in the Lafayette Athletic Association of the Deaf CO-ED Regional Slo-Pitch Softball Tournament.

In the Milken Institute Best Cities Index for metro areas, Lafayette was recently ranked 24th out of 200 metro areas, advancing 119 places from the previous year. I believe that Lafayette was recognized for being a complete community, including things such as technology, our university, our location, our embracing the arts and culture, and our quality of life.

Over the last few years, Lafayette has grown into the technology leader in our state with initiatives such as the Fiber to the Premises project and Louisiana Immersive Technologies Enterprise (LITE). Just recently, Lafayette was named one of the Top 10 Places in the South for the Creative Class.

As the center of Cajun and Creole culture, you will find warm, southern hospitality at its best, which makes Lafayette an ideal place for gatherings. These cultural strengths coming together as a whole, along with a low crime rate and excellent quality of life, make it an ideal regional mecca for technology and the arts.

Lafayette also has some of the finest restaurants in the state serving the best in Cajun and Creole food…along with world-famous Cajun and Zydeco music…and wonderful cultural attractions such as the Natural History Museum and Vermilionville.

I hope you enjoy your stay here in Lafayette. While here, I hope you are able to experience some of the many amenities that make this a great place to live, work and raise a family.

Best wishes to all of you!

Sincerely,

SOFTBALL PIONEER AWARD

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT

PARTICIPATED IN

FIRST ANNUAL SOUTHWEST
DEAF SOFTBALL TOURNEY

AT BEAUMONT, TEXAS, AUGUST 24, 25, 1968

H.C. Hubert Jr
Golden Triangle Catholic Deaf Society President

Earl B. Mathis
Golden Triangle Team Coach

Buford J. Hubert Jr.
Southwest Softball Tourney Chairman

HOW IT ALL BEGAN . . .

It was a cold wintry January night in 1968 when friends gathered at the home of Buford Mathis in Orange, Texas to "shoot the bull". The gamut of the topics narrowed down to one magic word – SOFTBALL. Picking up enthusiasm, Buford challenged the group present to stage a softball tourney in the area and to invite deaf teams from Houston, Texas to Lake Charles, Louisiana with Golden Triangle Catholic Deaf Society as the host. This idea was bandied about and eventually crystallized into the First Southwest Softball Tourney for the Deaf. And so the first slo-pitch softball tourney for the deaf in the Southwest was begotten on August 24, 1968 with four pioneering teams – Dallas Silents, Louisiana Hippies, Houston Rangers and Golden Triangle Lovers, the host team.

S.W.A.A.D. Softball History

IN THE BEGINNING 1968

The first softball tourney ala slowpitch was ushered in the Southwest August 24-25, 1968 at Beaumont, Texas with Golden Triangle Catholic Deaf Society as the tourney sponsor. Four teams showed up for the baptism: Dallas Silents, Houston Rangers, Golden Triangle Lovers, and Louisiana Hippies. Houston Rangers won the championship game. The Hippies lost the first game but rallied on to the finals in this double elimination contest. Dallas placed third with luckless Lovers at the bottom. Miss Kenny Hynes was the first Softball Queen with Miss Mary Harvard as the runnerup.

SECOND AND DOUBLED THE NEXT TIME 1969

Houston welcomed the second tourney under the co-sponsorship of Houston Association of the Deaf and Houston NFSD Div. No. 81 Labor Day weekend of 1969. Eight teams showed up: three Houston teams, Dallas, San Antonio, Louisiana Hippies, Golden Triangle Lovers, and Austin. San Antonio first, Dallas second, and Austin third.

SOFTBALL BIG IN BIG D 1970

August 15-16 saw 12 teams with 187 players and over 500 fans in the third annual fray hosted by Dallas Association of the Deaf. Austin Senators caught strong San Antonio off guard and the Santones had to battle again through the elimination rounds to face Austin again for the championship . . . only to lose again. Baytown and San Antonio waged a 9 inning duel won by the latter which was considered the most exciting game of the tourney. Houston Astros placed third.

SWSAD GOES ROMANTIC IN SAN ANTONIO..... 1971

The plush tropical charm of El Tropicano Hotel, the tourney headquarters and the excellent staging of the tourney by host San Antonio Association of the Deaf combined to make it a very memorable one. Ten teams with 160 players vied for the "bacon" which was grabbed by Baytown Rebels as it swamped all opposition in its path. New Orleans Patriots came in second, followed by San Antonio and the surprising Arlington Six Flags. August 21-22.

OUR FIFTH (HIC!) YEAR IN NEW ORLEANS 1972

The tournament was staged outside Texas for the first time and enough interest was generated so that three teams from Louisiana were entered instead of the lone entry representing the Pelican State in the past four tourneys. Dale Frankenhauser proved his worth as a MVP for the second straight year as he batted Austin Senators over his erstwhile teammates — Baytown Rebels in a 13-12 extra inning thriller for the 5th crown. A new state entry — Jackson, Mississippi enhanced the twelve team entries with a total of 185 players. Powerful Little Rock had to settle for third followed by the perennial bridesmaid — Dallas Silents. Most of the 500 plus crowd headed for the Bourbon Street binge in French Quarters after the dance — naturally. (August 19-20).

SWSAD GOES CAMELOT IN ARKANSAS 1973

Little Rock lowered its drawbridge and royally welcomed the softballers and their camp followers into the posh Camelot Inn, glittering medievally by the beautiful Arkansas River. On the tournament site at sprawling Burns Park in North Little Rock, newcomers Memphis, North Little Rock and all-black Southern Silents of New Orleans flung their gauntlets at the nine standard bearers and jousted for the "Holy Grail"—the emblematic Southwestern Championship. The old pros, Austin Senators proved indomitable as they continued their mastery over powerful Houston Rebels to win their third crown. Dallas, Little Rock, Baton Rouge and Memphis finished in order. August 17-19.

ON THE MAGIC CARPET TO THE BAGHDAD-ON-THE-BAYOU 1974

Host Houston Rebels proved to be the Ali Babas as their password "Open Sesame" magically opened the door to the exotic, sparkling, coveted SWSAD crown. They spoiled veteran Austin Senators' try for third straight championship 10-7. Five records were set at the Houston tourney, among them, the largest overall attendance and Houston being the first host team to win a SWSAD championship. San Antonio was third and Capital City of Baton Rouge fourth. August 16-18.

LAFAYETTE—THE FRENCH CAPITAL OF AMERICA! 1975

Torrential rains soaked the four fields at Lafayette into a quagmire. The inevitable result was whether "mudball" — not softball was played. Seeking a new dynasty, the invincible Houston Rebels ground the surprising Dallas team into the mud 25-4 in the second and deciding championship game. This tourney was dedicated to the late Sammy Lane, our vice president, who unexpectedly left us for the Great Beyond. San Antonio defeated Southern Silents of New Orleans for third place. The four diamond softball field layout with central seating drew the praise of fans. Also a tourney record of 16 teams was made here. August 8, 9, 10.

THE EYES OF TEXAS ARE UPON SWSAD 1976

Superpitcher Bobby Stevens and the magnificent Houston Rebels softball machine meshed together for scintillating conquests over tourney foes to garner another third SWSAD crown in a row and the right to represent the Southwest in the embryonic national slo-pitch softball tournament at Detroit. Ten (10) teams competed on the excellent four softball fields with four electric scoreboards at Austin before 500 fans. Dallas team A, Austin Senators, San Antonio, Capital City of Baton Rouge, and Little Rock finished in order. Houston Rebels, however, sputtered to a seventh place finish in the eight team field at the nationals . . . August 19, 20, 21.

BIG DELIVERANCE AT BIG "D" 1977

Capital City Trojans rallied to overcome a one run deficit at the bottom of the seventh inning of the championship game, capitalizing on disastrous fielding errors by host team Dallas A and pushed across two runs to end the game in a tumultuous victory. Eleven teams participated in this tenth tourney held on August 12-13 at Huffhines Park in the Dallas suburb of Richardson. On the national level, however, Capital City Trojans and idle Houston Rebels finished out of the second annual national AAAD tourney held at Houston September 15-18. Two milestones were reached: Capital City was the first Louisiana team to win the Southwest Championship and this tourney was the first ever to have some games played under lights. This tourney was the last staged under the auspices of SWSAD as SWSAD was to be absorbed into SWAAD on December 1, 1977.

BATTER UP AT BATON ROUGE 1978

Houston Rebels put on a 6-0 eruption in the first inning and coasted to a 9-1 Southwest Championship over jinxed Dallas Silents. Coming in third was Austin. Twelve teams participated in the tourney close by the mighty Mississippi River. Capital City of Baton Rouge hosted the tourney first ever held under full SWAAD banner. August 10-12.

YIPPEE! COWTOWN, HERE WE COME! 1979

The Dallas Blue Machine masterminded by youthful Al Jordan captured its first Southwest Softball Championship after eleven long dry years at the 12th Annual Tourney in Fort Worth, August 11-12. This team had to go through the lower double elimination bracket after being stunned by darkhorse Austin, 17-18 and came roaring back to sweep all five games on Sunday. Fourteen men teams, six women teams and over 600 registrants all combined to make Fort Worth tourney hosted by Fort Worth Association of the Deaf one of the largest tourneys in Southwest Softball. Houston Wo-Rebels defeated Dallas Debs for the Southwest Women Softball. The Blue Machine lost to Detroit, beat Denver and was eliminated by Cleveland in the AAAD Tourney at Cleveland September 20-22. Detroit won the National Championship. Dallas stood 6th place in the eight team field. Dallas was afflicted with batting dysfunction.

SHREVEPORT BY THE STORIED RED RIVER 1980

Houston Rebels shellshocked top seeded Dallas Blue Machine 13-10, for the 13th SWAAD title. Eleven teams participated in the tourney on August 7, 8, 9 and attracted 500 fans. Houston Rebels also dominated the women's softball tourney in which seven teams participated. Houston placed in the AAAD tourney of Indianapolis.

BACK TO BEAUMONT WITH BATTING STYLE 198

The birthplace of SWAAD softball brought fans in from everywhere to watch a thrilling championship gam between Houston and Dallas in which Dallas edged over Houston 6-5. Everyone sat in amazement as there wa no score in this game until the 10th inning. A new record was also set for SWAAD this year when in the game bet ween Little Rock and Beaumont, 43 runs were scored in 9 innings. San Antonio players kept everyone guessin as they lost their first game by one one run and won the next three by only one run. All were gotten in the last in ings. Stanley Ketchum, an outfielder for Little Rock, set a new record for SWAAD with a batting average of 1.000 This beat the old record of .900 which was set by Joe Savage, a Little Rock player in 1978. Wow!! What a year fo softball!!!

Rebel Yells at Jackson 1982

Chairman Sam Williamson looked heavenward for deliverance from the soggy rains that threatened the u coming tourney. The weather gods were smiling, however as Ol Sol broke through and shone on this tourney. Th Dallas Blue Machine, spearheaded by red hot Kent Reneau rolled over opponents: Jackson, San Antonio, and Houston before facing San Antonio in the championship game. The Dallas batting machine was awesome as su prising San Antonio was subdued by a whopping score, 23-10. Houston Rebelles continued their dynasty of reig in women's softball as they rolled over Jackson 12-4. The tourney of ten men's teams and five women's teams had an attendance of over 500. They new by laws of SWAAD were finally ratified. August 12, 13, 14.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT:
IT IS AGAINST THE LAW...

In the town of Muskogee, Oklahoma, there is an old city ordinance which states that no ball team should be allowed to hit the ball over the fence or out of the ball park!

SWWAAD HISTORY

In the beginning — 1975 . . .

The first softball tournament was on a trial for at least a year, which was held at Houston under the sponsorship of Houston Association of the Deaf.

Three teams showed up (Houston Wo-Rebels, Dallas and Baytown).

Houston Wo-Rebels won the championship game, Dallas came out second.

Rita Joy Willey won the Most Valuable Player; Angel Acuna as the Manager of the Tourney.

Second Annual at Austin — 1976 . . .

The women's association affiliation with the men's SWAAD was held as three teams came up (Houston Wo-Rebels, Austin and Dallas Debs).

Dallas Debs upset the Houston Wo-Rebels in the final.

Katie Butler won the Most Valuable Player, during the game she batted 1.000 to earn the honor spot.

Ralph Osborne was picked as the Manager of the Tourney.

Softball in Big "D" — 1977 . . .

On the distaff side, the Dallas Debs, fortified by their 25 plus game experience in the City League made mincemeat of all opposition with lopsided scores over three other opponents in the third Southwest Women Softball Association of the Deaf Tourney during the same dates. Thus they set the stage for their "Mission Impossible" goal: To defeat Detroit Assn. of the Deaf women softball team and thus capture the women's championship at the National tourney in Houston. Marla Raniff was the big gun for the Debs with Rita Willey and Sheri Mize sharing the co-honors.

Baton Rouge — 1978 . . .

Dallas and Houston were the only teams in this tournament. Houston won the championship game after winning three out of five games.

Team Sportsmanship was won by Houston.

Most Valuable Player was Mary Jo Stevens of Houston.

George Zein was picked as the Manager of the Tourney.

First SWAAD flye is designed by Billy Buza.
